

2007 EAST REGION SENIOR SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT

CONDUCT

Team's conduct shall be above reproach. Gross misconduct by any player, manager, coach, or league official shall result in a strong recommendation to the Tournament Committee in Williamsport, for removal of that person or team from the tournament.

A manager or coach shall not leave the dugout except to confer with a player or umpire and only after receiving permission from an umpire. A manager and/or coach may be a base coach. At least one adult manager or coach must be in the dugout at all times.

No manager, coach or player, shall at any time, whether from the bench or playing field or elsewhere;

Incite or try to incite, by word or sign, a demonstration by spectators.

Use language which will in any manor refer to or reflect upon opposing players, manager, coach, an umpire or spectators.

A manager or coach suspended for any reason is not permitted to be on the game site and must not take part in the game or have any communication whatsoever with any persons at the game site. Violation may result, by action of the Tournament Committee, in further suspension, forfeiture of a game and/or disqualification of the team manager or coaches from tournament participation.

A player, manager, coach, or official who is involved in a physical or verbal altercation at the game site would be suspended or removed from tournament play by the Tournament Committee.

Any manager, coach, or player ejected from a game will be suspended for the next physically played game. They must leave the field immediately and take no further part in that game. They may not sit in the stands and may not be recalled. A manager or coach ejected must not be present at the game site for the remainder of the game.

Any manager, coach, or player ejected from a game is suspended for the next physically played game and may not be in attendance at the game site.

Ejections shall be noted in the Tournament Team's affidavit in the Record of the Court on page 2. Ejections should include member's name and date of tournament by the Tournament Director or District Administrator.
